

ASKS ROTARY TO AID ARMENIANS

An appeal in El Paso to come to the aid of the Armenian people was made Thursday afternoon at the Rotary luncheon by Mrs. Anna A. Roberts, manager of the El Paso Armenian Relief Committee. Mrs. Roberts said that the Armenian people were suffering from the effects of the war and that the Turkish government was not doing enough to help them. She asked the Rotary to help by contributing to the relief fund.

The Armenian people are suffering from the effects of the war and the Turkish government is not doing enough to help them. The relief fund is being organized to help them and the Rotary is asked to contribute to it. Mrs. Roberts said that the Armenian people were suffering from the effects of the war and that the Turkish government was not doing enough to help them. She asked the Rotary to help by contributing to the relief fund.

ENGLAND BUYS MOST WHEAT EXPORTS

Washington, D.
